

Grove Lane, London, SE5 8ST house

£2,000,000

- Grade two listed
- Five double bedrooms
- South West facing rear Garden
- Original Features
- Large Sash windows
- 60ft front garden

A rare and elegant Georgian townhouse, on one of the most sought after Georgian terraces in London. Ample and flexible accommodation split over five floors with beautiful original Georgian features and a south westerly facing garden with double garage. The basement and loft have facilities to be used as self contained living quarters, All rooms at the front of the property have an attractive view of St Giles Church from the large sash windows. A peaceful and charming place to live, in the midst of the eclectic delights of Camberwell, Denmark Hill and Peckham. Walking distance to Kings College Hospital & Ruskin Park. An enviable and sought after residence